

COMPULSED TO USE A CRUTCH FOR EIGHT MONTHS. DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED MRS. P. CONLIN, CARBONDALE, PA.

Mrs. P. Conlin, 35 Greenfield Avenue, Carbondale, Pa., says: "I suffered with backache, and, despite the use of medicines, I could not get rid of it. I was compelled to use a crutch for eight months, and a part of the time was unable to walk at all. I fairly screamed if I attempted to lift my feet from the floor, and finally, I lost control of my limbs through weakness, as I could neither bend nor straighten up to my full height, and if ever a woman was in a serious condition, I was. My husband went to Kelly's drug store and brought home a box of Doan's Pills. I felt easier in a few days, and, continuing the treatment, I

SHORTHAND WORK PAYS.

The ability to write shorthand is coming to be more and more an absolute and necessary clerical qualification for young men and women in every station of life. Genfuses and Others.

During the year 1902 there were made at the English Patent Office 28,976 applications for patents, of which only 13,764 were granted. Next to electric traction and motor car specifications the favorite subjects for invention were wireless telegraphy, golf balls and clubs and reversible outside seats for tram-cars. The Queen Victoria street fire led to a big boom in applications for patent fire escapes.

Free Theater Tickets.

People in Paris, who are interested in giving working girls a bit of pleasure now and then, have devised a scheme where worthy girls receive two tickets to a good theater once in a while. The scheme calls for an elaborate system of registration, but it is working to perfection. The Kaiser is thinking of introducing the idea into the royal theaters in Germany.

Slightly Mistaken.

"They" wrote a Kansas City reporter, having reference to two men who were saved after being in the flood two days, "suffered terribly, as they were without food or water."

She Didn't Care.

Maplehill, Ill., Aug. 10th.—"I felt as though I didn't care whether I lived or died, I was so miserable all the time."

In these words does Miss Nellie Barfoot of this place describe her condition. Every woman who is, or has been sick and suffering will understand and appreciate just how Miss Barfoot felt, and there are no doubt many thousands of similar cases.

It is truly an awful thing when a woman gets so low that she can say "I don't care whether I live or die."

But Miss Barfoot tells a different story to-day, and her words should guide every suffering woman to the path of health and happiness.

"I used Dodd's Kidney Pills, and I am cured. I feel like a new person, and I would say to every woman suffering as I did, give Dodd's Kidney Pills a trial and you will not be disappointed. They are worthy of the highest praise."

Mosquitoes Attack Paris.

Following a long period of unusually wet and sultry weather, a plague of mosquitoes is reported in Paris. It is said that the ornamental, but stagnant or sluggish, ponds have something to do with the situation which is rendering mosquito nets necessary in many houses.

Quite a Ceremony.

A Buddhist dignitary was recently buried in Japan, and the police attended the funeral and made an official report of the ceremonies, which must have been rather picturesque. The report merely says: "Three hundred and eleven injured, 75 fainting, 121 thefts, 374 pickpockets captured, 1,921 articles lost and 79 people rescued from canals."

Not Surprising.

Complaint is made that the new rules make the game of football too technical. Perhaps they have been so framed that when three men have been killed on a side the game shall be called. If so, no wonder there is a kick.—Los Angeles Times.

A BACK NUMBER

The Milk and Egg Diet.

Starving the patient who has a sick stomach, is an out-of-date treatment and no longer necessary with the predigested and nourishing food Grape-Nuts, that the weakest stomach can handle and grow strong upon.

There is plenty of proof of this: "I had suffered from stomach trouble for six years and for most of the last two years had been confined to my bed, the trouble having become chronic in spite of the very best medical attention. I had always been a coffee drinker, but for the past year I could not drink it at all because it made me so nervous I could not sleep and my appetite was almost entirely gone."

"Then some friends advised me to try the predigested food Grape-Nuts and about three months ago I did so and since that time my improvement has been so rapid that my customers and friends are astonished and every day someone remarks upon my changed condition. I have gained 15 pounds, sleep well, my appetite is good and my digestion is perfect. Where I have lived on milk and light diet for years I now eat most anything I want and don't suffer any inconvenience either. The way Grape-Nuts food has built up my stomach and strengthened my nervous system particularly is just wonderful."

"I drink your food drink, Postum, too, and no longer feel the want of coffee. There is absolutely no doubt that leaving off coffee and using Grape-Nuts and Postum has brought me out of my bed from an invalid back to fine health." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

"There's a reason," and that reason is plain to anyone who will spend a few minutes investigating in the interest of health.

BEECHER NOT FOND OF MOKEY.

Major Pond Tells Good Story on Famous Divine.

The late Major James B. Pond, who had many stories to tell of the famous lecturers whom he managed, was especially fond of indulging in reminiscences of Henry Ward Beecher, for whom he had a great admiration. One of his favorite Beecher anecdotes was this one:

"One day while I was making a long railway journey with Mr. Beecher, he happened to put his hand into the little watch pocket of his trousers. He drew from it a sealed envelope, gave the envelope a puzzled look, and then tore it open. A little while later he passed it to me, saying: 'Major, see what is inside. Some weeks ago I officiated at the marriage of a great railway manager, and after the ceremony he handed me that envelope. I hurriedly slipped it into my pocket and then forgot all about it. Just now I happened to run my fingers into the pocket and discovered it.' I opened the envelope and there lay five one-thousand-dollar bills!"—New York Times.

DORCAS MADE A POINT.

Very Neatly Turned the Tables on His Better Half.

"I don't see how you can say I've been neglecting my home and wasting my time attending club meetings," protested Mrs. Dorcas. "You men are so selfish in your views you can't see gold in anything unless there's money in it."

"Well, what good is there in that club of yours that keeps you away from home most of the time?"

"Intellectual good, my dear," returned his better half; "something more to be desired than all the money in the world. For instance, our club has gone in for nature study, and I have learned all about the habits of the interesting little creatures of the insect world."

"You have, eh?" sneered Dorcas. "Well, all I can say is that if you'd kept away from your old club and studied insect life at home, I would have been spared the shock I received on opening the wardrobe and finding holes."

Starting Early.

Dr. Francis L. Patton, President of Princeton Theological Seminary, has a reputation not only for the excellence of his sermons, but for the short notice at which, on occasion, he can prepare them. Some time ago he was conducting a "question box" at a summer school, when he was asked by one of his auditors:

"Will you tell me, Dr. Patton, your method in preparing your sermons? Do you begin early in the week?"

"Yes," said Dr. Patton, "quite early."

"But," persisted the questioner, "how early?"

"About 6 o'clock Sunday mornings!"—New York Times.

In Classic Boston.

Riles Carman, the poet, tells of a young friend of his who was seeking apartments in Boston's aristocratic section, Beacon Hill. At one house he was received by the landlady, a spinster of uncertain age and aggressive refinement of manner. Awed to a great degree by the lady's manner, the rather nervous young man stammered:

"And would it be possible for me to secure apartments in your house, Mrs. Blank?"

Whereupon the spinster held herself even straighter than before and replied with haughty reproof:

"Miss Blank, Sir! Miss—from choice!"—New York Times.

Proverb Against Him.

Down town they are telling how E. C. Benedict remarked the other day to S. L. Blood, at the latter's Broadway office, that he had an important matter to talk over with some one he could trust. Now Mr. Benedict and Mr. Blood are close friends.

"Well?" replied Mr. Blood.

"Some one in whom I had implicit faith," Mr. Benedict continued, "I'm not sure about you."

Mr. Blood grew red, "And why not?" he asked, with emphasis.

"Well," said Mr. Benedict, "this is a matter of absolute confidence, you see, and they do say, 'Blood will tell.'"

—New York Times.

Sonnet.

Lee, who in nigard soil hast delved, to find
What things aever may be known or guessed
Of him that to the ages gives no rest,
The world-watched secret peak of human mind;
Thy choice was well, who leav'st to fools and blind
All visionary, vague, fantastic quest,
None to the Presence hath more nearly pressed,
Nor hast thou him dis-served to serve mankind.

"Tis said of certain poets, that writ large
Their somber names on tragic stage and tomb
They are gulfs or estuaries of Shakespear's sea,
Lofty the praise; and honor enough, to be
As children playing by his mighty marge
Glorious with casual sprinklings of the foam."
—William Watson, in the Fortnightly Review.

Infection from Table Salt.

It perhaps does not occur to many people that there is risk in our present unclean method of using table salt from an open dish or salt cellar, as it is always exposed to the dust and germs floating about in the atmosphere. Knowing also the affinity salt has for moisture, it is only reasonable to expect that it will absorb this from a sick room (which may possibly be jammed artificially) and then take up the germs of disease at the same time.

U. S. SENATOR FROM SOUTH CAROLINA

Recommends Pe-cu-na
For Dyspepsia and Stomach Trouble.

Ex Senator M. C. Butler

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Pe-cu-na, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

Catarrh of the Stomach is Generally Called Dyspepsia—Something to Produce Artificial Digestion is Generally Taken.

Hence, Pepsin, Pancreatin and a Host of Other Digestive Remedies Has Been Invented.

These Remedies Do Not Reach the Seat of the Difficulty, Which is Really Catarrh

Ex U. S. Senator M. C. Butler from South Carolina, was Senator from that state for two terms. In a recent letter to The Pe-cu-na Medicine Co., from Washington, D. C., he says:

"I can recommend Pe-cu-na for dyspepsia and stomach trouble. I have been using your medicine for a short period and I feel very much relieved. It is indeed a wonderful medicine besides a good tonic."—M. C. Butler.

The only rational way to cure dyspepsia is to remove the catarrh. Pe-cu-na cures catarrh. Pe-cu-na does not produce artificial digestion. It cures catarrh and leaves the stomach to perform digestion in a natural way. This is vastly better and safer than resorting to artificial methods.

Pe-cu-na has cured more cases of dyspepsia than all other remedies combined, simply because it cures catarrh wherever located. If catarrh is located in the head, Pe-cu-na cures it. If catarrh has fastened itself in the throat or bronchial tubes, Pe-cu-na cures it. When catarrh becomes settled in the stomach, Pe-cu-na cures it, as well in this location as in any other.

Pe-cu-na is not simply a remedy for dyspepsia. Pe-cu-na is a catarrh remedy. Pe-cu-na cures dyspepsia because it is generally dependent upon catarrh.
